August Artist of the Month:
Nan Daly

I explore imaginary landscapes through watercolor and mixed media paintings. Although these paintings are abstract, to me they evoke memories of growing up in an apple orchard near the mountains and waterfalls of upstate New York.

I also like to paint close-ups of flowers based on the hundreds of photos I take in other people's gardens—because I definitely lack a green thumb!

I've been a high school English and Drama teacher, a college admissions counselor, a professional calligrapher, and a designer/owner of a greeting card company. I'm sure each of these has had an effect (or taken a toll?) on my painting, but I hesitate to analyze what that might mean. I've studied at the MFA and the DeCordova, and with artists as varied as John Murray and Bonnie Mineo.

I look forward to meeting and working with the members of DAA as we all pursue our love of art and creative expression. You can see more of the things I do on my website: www.nandaly.com

Fuller Craft Museum Outing

On June 22nd, a group from Dedham Art Association was hosted by Jonathan Fairbanks, Director, at the Fuller Craft Museum in Brockton (pictured at right in the photo above.) A knowledgeable docent provided a guided tour while Jonathan entertained us with first-hand stories about acquisitions and artwork on display. He is retiring at the end of July and we wish him the very best.
